

OUTCOMES OF INQUIRY

By the end of the Inquiry Phase, each inquirer shall demonstrate adequate promise for ministry by presenting written responses to the following:

1. A statement of his or her understanding of personal vocation in the reformed tradition and how it relates to his or her sense of call.
2. A statement of personal faith which incorporates an understanding of the reformed tradition.
3. An analysis of at least one concept from the personal statement of faith regarding what it suggests about God and humanity.
4. A statement of what it means to be a Presbyterian, indicating how that awareness grows out of participation in the life of a particular church
5. A statement of self understanding which reflects the inquirer's personal and cultural background as it relates to Ministry of Word and Sacrament, and includes a concern for maintaining spiritual, physical and mental health.
6. A statement of his or her understanding of the tasks Teaching Elders perform, including an awareness of his or her specific gifts for this ministry along with an understanding of where growth is needed.
